Sir,

With reference to the correspondence ending with C.C.No.--3819 I & M., dated 20.9.1928 I have the honour to state that one of the subordinates has since retired from service from 23.8.31 and his pension papers have been sent to the Accountant General, Madras. Since the subordinate has been deprived of the benefits of pension on the posts he held during the three years preceding the retirement I request that Government will be pleased to condone a deficiency of one year in the service qualifying for pension in exercise of the powers conferred under Article 422 of the Civil Service Regulations as this will enable the teacher to get a pension of 22/60 of the average emoluments instead of 21/60.

The favour of early sanction is requested.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. Gopalaswamy

President.

With reference to Government Memorandum No. 11623-1 L.S.G. dated 1-4-1932 I have the honour to state as follows:-

2. The petitioner under reference is one Sanchali Raghavendra who was late employed as a teacher of the Sessional Board, Hospet. He entered service consequent on the abolition of the Sessional School, Hospet. He entered service in the year 1899 as a teacher in a Primary School under the control of the Taluk Board, Hospet. He has put in a total service of 32 years and 5 days from 17.8.1899 to 22.8.1931 of which only a period of 21 years and 3 months and (13) days i.e, from 17.8.1899 to 30-11-1920 alone counts for pension. This is due to the fact that from 1-12-1920 he had to be admitted to non-pensionable service in the District Board as a permanent teacher in one of the Middle schools of the District Board. Please see correspondence ending with G.O.No.3.1921 dated 22.2.21.

3. The petition papers of the individual are now in the Office of the Accountant General, Madras who has also now sanctioned him a gratuity pension of Rs 9/- per month. The Accountant General in his communication with the Director of Public Instruction in regard to the nature of the public work by the teacher in the Education Department of the Government for about 10 years. These papers may be sent for and perused if necessary.

Prima facie it appears to be a case for condonation.

Issued as Memo: No. 15682-1 dated 6-5-32 From the A.G. No. Pen. R. 105 of 31-32 & 145-32 Gos. No. 1961 L.&M. & 5-9-23 and No. 1609 L.&M. & 16-4-26 in which orders originally were passed on the pensions of certain allied cases are stated to have been taken by L.S.G. (Spl. Secn.) and and C.S.R. (A2 Sec.) respectively by C.S.G. may be requested to put up the above P.Q.s for this file.

2. Condonation of deficiency in service

Cf. para 2 on p. 4 c/f and para 1 on pp. 6-7 of Sr. (C)

The applicant was born on 17-8-1899 & joined Govt. service on 1-11-1920 post which were declared as pensionable under Art. 502, C.S.R. from 1-12-20. He was transferred to appointments under the local board which were not pensionable under Art. 502, C.S.R. Consequently, the applicant's service from that date does not qualify for pension. The applicant retired with effect from 23-8-1931 A.N. Excluding his service from 1-12-20 to 22-8-31 which does not qualify for pension, the applicant has rendered a qualifying service of 21 years 3 months & 16 days for which a pension of Rs. 12-10-0 p.m. is admissible. The R.D.B. & Bellary recommend that the deficiency of one year may be condoned by Govt. under Art. 423, C.S.R. in order to enable the applicant to get an enhanced pension of Rs. 13-3-0 (equivalent of $\frac{22}{60}$ths of average emoluments). It may be observed that it is sufficient to condone a deficiency of 8 months & 16 days for the above purpose.

Attention is solicited to Mr. Wood's note (written as D.S. Finance) extracted at flag (A) indicating the principles ordinarily followed in condoning deficiencies. None of the circumstances mentioned in that note (B) exists in the present case and the proposal for the condonation of the deficiency is thus not ordinarily admissible. It is true that the applicant has been deprived of the benefit of getting full pension but this was because of the local board's action in having transferred the applicant to non-pensionable posts. Reference is in this connection invited to L.S.G. Secy's note on p. 20 and para-2 of order on pp. 21-22 of Go. 3819 L&M dt 20-9-28. (C) It is for the applicant to move the P.D.B. Bellary for the grant to him of prov. fund benefits or some gratuity in respect of the service from 1-12-1920 to 22-8-1931 which does not qualify for pension. In a similar case, non-qualifying service under a local board was not considered a special circumstance and the Govt. declined to condone a deficiency of 4 months and 15 days - See Go 1053 Fin (Rev) dated 16.12.29. In the circumstances explained, there seems to be hardly any case for condonation of deficiency. The whole hardship viz. the loss of nearly 11 years pensionable service ~~in the case of the teacher~~ in in the case of the teacher in question was due to the bungling of the P.W.D. who transferred him ~~besides~~ some others from pensionable to non pensionable posts and did not apparently even carry out the instructions of the Govt ~~regarding~~ issued to him in the matter As however the teacher will be eligible for gratuity in respect of his non pensionable service the question of condonation need not be pressed. | C1 17/6
